

- Project: your turn to run the show!
-

● Time line for remaining weeks

- Week 9: introduction of research topics (PG+AO); form groups and design a project over the next two weeks
- Week 10: finalize project design
- Weeks 11 - 13: data collection/analysis
- Week 14: oral presentation and final discussions
- + career presentations, Thursday Dec 12th, 10:15am

● Groups composition

- 4 groups of 5 people, 2 groups in each lab
- Group 1: Léo, Lylia, Max, Méline, Ricardo
- Group 2: Enzo, Luan, Thomas, Valentine, Victoire
- Group 3: Mila, Axel, Charles-Edouard, Chloé, Nicolas
- Group 4: Annabelle, Clémentine, Elena, Justin, Théo
- At the end of today's session, you discuss (with our help if needed) to decide which group takes on which project
- Contact me with your preference (if any) ASAP; group assignments communicated ASAP thereafter
- Internships and Masters projects

● Some general considerations

- Today: overview only -we want you to do the thinking!
- During the week –read, think, design!
- Be clear about what question you want to address!
- Then only: define how to address it!
- Be creative but realistic... time is short!
- Next week (9:30am-ish): discussions and reality check
- Of course: do not hesitate to contact us in the meantime!
- Grade on the project part: individual; mark based on design, execution, presentation, Q&A, ...