At the beginning and during the exam

 The exam starts at 8h15 and you have 1h30 to work, except special arrangements.
When instructed (at 8h15 normally), you can open the exam copy and start to work.

 You must check that the exam copy is complete (16 pages, with 12 single choice questions, 4 true/false questions and 3 case studies) and signal any issue before starting to work.

- You must use a black or dark blue ballpen and clearly erase with correction fluid if necessary.
- Draft paper will be provided, it is prohibited to use any other paper for draft.
 - 👉 Please ask an assistant if you need more draft paper.
- Do not unstaple the exam copy.
- The space allotted is sufficient, do not add extra sheets to your exam copy.
If you run out of space, you can use the empty pages at the end of the copy. In this case, don't forget to specify in your answer that you are continuing on the last pages (otherwise these pages will not be corrected).
- Ask an assistant if you need to access the restrooms.

Important:

- No student can leave the room in the first 30 minutes of the exam (i.e. before 8h45).
- Late arrivals are allowed only in the first 30 minutes (i.e. until 8h45).
- It is prohibited to communicate with any other person during the exam, whether by electronic means or in the room.
- Any case of suspected fraud will be reported to the section director and Legal Service.

End of the exam

 The end of the exam will be signaled by the assistants, normally at 9h45, except special arrangement. When instructed (at 9h45 normally, except special arrangement), put your pen down and stop working. You must remain seated and silent while we collect the exam copies.

Important:

- If you have finished before 9h30, you can hand in your exam copy and draft paper and leave the room.
- It is not possible to leave the room in the last 15 minutes of the exam (i.e. after 9h30).
- No student can leave the room while we collect the copies.
- You must hand in both your exam copy and all the draft paper (whether used or not) before you leave the room.
