You may need to input your email address

The screenshot shows the Anaconda Distribution download page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Anaconda logo and a menu icon. The main heading is "Distribution" with a "Free Download*" subtext. Below this, there is a section describing the benefits of registration, followed by a list of features with green checkmarks. At the bottom of the page, there is a note about business licensing and a "Skip registration" link. The central part of the page is a form titled "Provide email to download Distribution". It contains a text input for "Email Address", a checkbox for accepting communication terms, and a "Submit" button. Below the form, there is a link to "Privacy Policy" and "Terms of Service".
