

Course 14 – wetting/dewetting – contact angle

Disjoining pressure Π : difference between the thermodynamic equilibrium state pressure applied to surfaces separated by a film and the pressure in the bulk phase with which the film is in equilibrium.