If you decide to install Simapro 10.1, and want to use EN15804 database

Installation is the same, with the same procedure for downloading the database EN15804

Before importing the EN15804 database,

- File > Open Simapro Database
- And select the Ecoinvent310_EN15804 → It will update the database to be readable by the new Simapro 10.1 version

Then, you can import the database (from slide n°19)
